

The proposed sale of Rainbow 1 to echostar is anticompetitive and against the public interest because it will have the effect of removing 1 of the three satelite broadcasters. It will also vastly reduce the available HD resource available to the public